

Dr. King Research Report Rubric

Name

	3 points	1-2 points possible	0 points
Early Life	Description of early life includes date of birth, location of where Dr. King grew up, and other relevant details of childhood. Includes details and relevant illustrations.	Some description of Dr. King's early life is included, but some facts may be missing. May not include relevant illustrations.	Early Life is missing or incomplete.
Education and Career	Discusses where Dr. King attended school, what he studied, and his career (job). Includes relevant details and relevant illustrations.	Some description of Dr. King's education and career is included, but is missing relevant facts. May not include relevant illustrations.	Education and Career is missing or incomplete.
Important Events	Includes at least 3 important events during Dr. King's life and explains the importance of each event. Includes relevant illustrations.	2-3 important events are listed, but may not be fully explained. May not include relevant illustrations.	Important Events are missing or incomplete.
Honoring Dr. King	Includes date of death and why we honor him today. Description includes ways we remember him. Includes relevant illustrations.	May include some details, but not fully explained. May not include relevant illustrations.	Honoring Dr. King section is missing or incomplete.
Bibliography	A bibliography is included that lists at least 2 sources (complete website addresses, book titles/authors, etc.)	Bibliography does not include at least 2 sources, or does not list websites or books completely.	Bibliography is missing.
Visual appeal, grammar, spelling, and neatness of overall report	Overall presentation is neat and visually appealing. Words are spelled correctly. Correct grammar and punctuation are included.	Most of report is neat and visually appealing, may have some misspelled words, incorrect grammar and punctuation.	Report is disorganized and/or messy, words are misspelled and/or includes incorrect grammar/punctuation.