

Wax Museum Presentations

Student Name:

Person You are Representing:

	3 points possible	1 -2 points possible	0 points possible
Greeting	Speech includes a creative way to introduce self.	Speech introduces self in an ordinary way such as, "Hi, I'm _____ "	A greeting is not included.
Beginning	The beginning includes your name, place and date of birth, interesting details from early life.	Beginning includes name and birthdate; may not include interesting details from early life.	The beginning is missing or mostly incomplete.
Middle	The middle includes facts, events, and details leading up to your famous contribution.	The middle includes some details explaining key events leading up to your contribution.	The middle lacks key details and events leading up to your contribution.
End	The end includes how you contributed to history, important details about end of life, and date of death (if applicable).	The end includes some important details about end of life and date of death (if applicable).	The end lacks important details about later life and/or date of death.
Closing	You close the speech with a quote about or by yourself or add final remarks about your life and contribution.	The closing includes a final remark about your contribution and/or an important quote.	The closing lacks a final remark about your contribution or an important quote by or about you.
Oral presentation Skills	You speak with expression (loud & proud) and engage the audience (including relevant body language, if applicable).	Some expression, but speech needs to be louder or clearer or include better audience engagement.	Oral presentation skills are lacking in expression, clarity, and/or volume.