

Realism and Fantasy

Presentation by Heather Collea

3rd Grade Language Arts

Obj. 3.02 – Identify and discuss similarities within and across selections.

VOCABULARY

A story that tells about something that could happen in real life is realistic.

A story that has some things that could not possibly happen is fantasy.

REALISTIC

FANTASY

A man from the zoo brings a snake,
Sally, to Tara's school.

REALISTIC OR FANTASY?

“I’ m having a bad hair day,” moaned the ostrich.

REALISTIC OR FANTASY?

Heather and her dog, Remy, enjoyed their walk in the warm sunshine.

REALISTIC OR FANTASY?

“It looks like a storm is headed our way,” warned Roy Rooster.

REALISITIC OR FANTASY?

REVIEW

- What is a realistic story?
- What is a fantasy?
- Could a fantasy have some things that could really happen?
- Give an example of a realistic story.
Give an example of a fantasy story.